

SYLVESTER BISHOP b. Feb. 25, 1779 NH, d. Aug. 7, 1859 MI/RUTH DUEL d. Aug. 7, 1859
80y5m12d MI

He lived in Saratoga Co., NY, and owned a tavern there, see "History of Saratoga Co., New York." "Fire at Ballstown - At one or two o'clock on the morning of the 10th ult. A fire broke out in the house of Ruluf Duryea, at Saratoga Springs, which was entirely consumed, together with the house adjoining, owned and occupied by Sylvester Bishop. The fire was so far advanced, before discovered, that it was with difficulty the family, and several boarders with Mr. Duryea, escaped a sacrifice to the devouring element. Mr. Mott, a brother-in-law of Mr. Duryea, who lodged in the same room as Mr. Miller, on the alarm, seized a blanket from his bed, wrapped it around him, requesting this room mate to do the same and to follow..."

This article was published in The Herald, a Rutland, Vermont newspaper, dated 4 July 1807

They then moved to Cayuga Co., NY around 1810 then to Mason, Cass Co., MI around 1840.

Sources: Sylvester's partial tree was sent to me from a Cass County Historian around 1990, author unknown. New York and Michigan census, "History of Saratoga Co., New York," "History of Cass County Michigan," Cass Co., Obits and Cemetery Records.

There are some obvious errors and omissions. This is just a rough name outline. The majority of the above people lived, married and were buried in Cass and neighboring Michigan Counties.

The Bulland spelling was on the tree sent to me but with more researching, I am inclined to assume that the name was Bulhand. More research on the Bulhands takes you to Medina Co., OH, and originally to Cayuga Co., NY. They came over from England around 1824.
