Notes

James was listed in the household with his mother in the 1860 census. He was 22.

Trumble, James

The announcement of the death of James Trumble, Monday morning May 31, after being for some time in a very weak and critical condition, brought sorrow to a large circle of friends and the sad occurrence was deeply regretted by all our neighbors, by whom he was universally respected. The immediate cause of Mr. Trumble's death was "bronchial catarrh" from which he suffered for some time. The deceased was born in October 7, 1837 in Jefferson county, town of Lima, N.Y., and was therefore about 59 years and eight months of age at the time of his death. He was married to 1862 to Miss Mary Reese, who survives him, besides whom he leaves two sons, Eugene and John, and two daughters, Emma and Lula. He became connected with the Methodist church at an early period in life and remained throughout a consistent member, always taking a great interest in any matter pertaining to the church. The funeral services were held at the China Methodist church at 12 o'clock, on Wednesday, June 2nd, Rev. Tripp, assisted by Rev. McCarthy of Adair, officiating. The remains attended by a large number of friends and acquaintances were conveyed to the last resting place in the St. Clair city cemetery.

Card of Thanks

The surviving members of the family desire to express their sincere gratitude to the many kind friends and neighbors who rendered such valuable assistance to the afflicted ones during the illness and death of their loved one.

Child: Estes Trumble

Notes

Estes Trumble of St. Clair town celebrated his sixty-fifth birthday today. He was born Aug. 8 1839, in Montgomery county, New York, and came to this county with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Trumble, in 1848. He was married in 1865 to Miss Elizabeth Coyle. To them have been born nine children, of whom six survive. He has a fine farm well provided with stock and as a man stands high in the community. While averse to office-holding, he has served for a number of terms on the school board.

From "Biographical Memoirs of St. Clair County, Michigan" Published in 1903 is the following:

Estes Trumble

The Trumble family of St. Clair County Michigan, is one whose standing in the county is not excelled by any other. The progenitor of the family, Lewis Trumble, father of Estes Trumble, located in Michigan in 1848. He came from Montgomery County, New York, but was a native of England. The mother of Estes Trumble was Elizabeth Empy, a native of the state of New York. When the Trumble family located in St. Clair County in 1848, it was a wild country, thinly populated and none too healthful. A tract of eighty acres of land was purchased, a home built on the land cleared, Mr. Trumble varying his time between working in his clearing and his trade, that of a carpenter. To Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Trumble six children were born, five of whom are dead, James, Phobe, Charlotte, Elizabeth, and William, the death of the latter occurring in May, 1902. Mr Lewis Trumble died in August, 1853, his wife in May, 1891.

Estes Trumble was born in Montgomery County, New York, August 8, 1839. He was only nine years of age when his parents moved to Michigan, so that his opportunities of acquiring an education were rather limited. Hard work was the rule in those days and the subject of this sketch had his full share of it. He resided home, contributing to the support of the family, until he was twenty-five years of age. Early in 1865, while the war was still in progress, he entered the services of the United States as an engineer and construction carpenter, which occupation he followed until the close of the war.

In November, 1865, Mr. Trumble was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Coyle, a lady of amiable disposition and many accomplishments. She was the daughter of John Coyle, who was also a native of New York, but who came to St. Clair county about 1854 and settled in St. Clair township. He was a farmer, which business he followed until his death many years ago. To Mr. and Mrs. Trumble nine children have been born, Viz: James, a farmer and sailor, lived in St. Clair, married Clara Rhodamaker and they are the parents of three children, Mildred, Elenore and Edwin: Lewis is a sailor and resides at home: William died April 6, 1902: Wallace resided at home and is a sailor: Edward died April 29, 1902: Estes, Fred, Lottie and Milton all reside at home.

For about five years Mr. Trumble resided near Saginaw, Michigan, working in the woods and manufacturing hoops. At the latter business he was quite an expert and made good wages. When he found that his savings justified him in doing so, he, in 1872, purchased the forth-acre tract of land in St Clair township on which he now lives. At the time of the purchase it was wholly unimproved, wild and rough, but upon it he erected a home, cleared the land and converted it into a desirable farm. He rents a farm in connection with this and on both carries on general farming, raising grain, hay and vegetables and breeding, rearing a feeding stock. He had also purchased an eighty-acre tract adjoining. In politics Mr. Trumble is a Democrat, a firm believer in principles of that political faith and always interest himself in the success of his party ticket. He has, however, no desire for political preferment for himself. His friends have induced him to serve several terms on the school board, but that is as far in the way of office holding as he could be induced to go. He is a level-headed, progressive citizen, the head of a family that would bring credit to any community.

According to the 1900 census, the question was asked the place of birth of the father and mother. Lewis Trumble was born in Massachusetts and Elizabeth Empy was born in New York.

In the 1870 US Federal census, State of Michigan, Sanilac County, Township of St. Charles: E. Trumbull was found with Elizabeth, James, Hugh and a niece Julia Doner as domestic servant. Also in the household are the following: All the men were Hoop Makers.

Notes

From a newspaper clipping upon his death, it read. Wm. A. Trumbull was born in May 23, 1841, in Montgomery county, state of New York. He came in his youth to Michigan settling in St. Clair county where he has made his home ever since.

In 1863 he was married to Miss. Harriet Crane, who still survives him. He also leaves behind to mourn his loss, four children, Walter J., of St. Clair: Clinton, of Marysville, Mrs. Fenton, of Richmond, and George, of St. Clair.

Mr. Trumbull, the deceased has been in poor health during the past year. He has been gradually growing weaker but yet his passing away seemed sudden and was a surprise to many of his friends. He was seen by some of you upon the streets of our town on Monday and Tuesday of last week, but early Wednesday morning he was taken suddenly worse and after spending the day in severe pain he quietly passed away at 10 O'clock in the evening. He thus died at the age of 61 years, 1 month and 2 days.

His funeral service which was held in the Methodist church last Sunday afternoon was largely attended. The members of the Masonic Lodge and of the G.A. R. post, were present to pay their last tribute of respect to their departed brother and comrade.

The sermon was preached by the pastor of the church, Rev. J. L. Gardiner. In his address, he called attention to some traits of character exemplified in the life of the deceased.

He said Mr. Trumbull was a Christian and therefore no apology was necessary for his life. He had been a faithful member of the church and of the official board. "Not only" said Mr. Gardner "was he a soldier of Christ but he was also a faithful soldier of his county, having fought in the cause of freedom in the civil war." He was one who was interested in education and was not only anxious, that his children be well educated but that good literature be ever kept before them. Mr. Trumbull was sociable and kindly in disposition; he liked to look upon the bright side of life. He loved his home and was never so happy as when his family were gathered around him. He will be greatly missed not only by his own family but also by his many friends.

The 1870 census has a family in Casco Township.

William A. 29 born in New York
 Harriet A. 26 born in New York
 Walter J. 6 born in Michigan
 Charles 4 born in Michigan
 Alice 1 born in Michigan
 Elizabeth 58 born in New York

Elizabeth is probably William's mother. She was born in 1812. She is also in the household in the 1880 census.

In A. T. Andreas & co. 1883 p. 724 is an article that reads as follows:

William A. Trumble, farmer, Section 2, P.O. St. Clair is a native of New York state. and was born in Jefferson County, May 23, 1841. His parents came to this county in 1848, and settled in St. Clair. He began sailing when seventeen years old, and followed the lakes nine years. He enlisted in the navy during the war, and served on the gunboats Vidette and Pioneer. After the war he sailed on the lakes. Has been engaged in farming since 1872, and owns a farm of fifty acres He held school office. In 1868 he married Miss Harriet A. Crane, a native of New York State. They have five children-Walter, Charles, Alice, Clinton and George.

In the 1860 US Federal Census William Trumble, age 17 was a cook. He was in the household of Wheeler Stone, 34 a sailor, wife Prisline, age 30, William Chortee, 26 a sailor, and Columbus Flurie, 22 a sailor.
