JACKSON, WARNER, WOOD posted by 1883 History of St Clair, MI

William WARNER, farmer, Section 33, P. O. Algonac, is a native of New York State, and was born in Jefferson County April 12, 1827. When only ten years of age he began sailing on the Henry Crevolin, and since then has sailed on the lakes every season, a period of forty-four years, until 1882. He was steward on the Manhattan before the canal was built in the Detour Passage at Sault Ste Marie. He was steward on the Vandalia, the first propeller built at Oswego, N.Y., also on the Canisteo, New York, Buffalo, Bradbury, and is one of the oldest stewards in continuous service on the lakes. He has lived on this place seventeen years and owns his farm. He was married, January 1, 1863, to Miss Emma WOOD, of Cleveland, Ohio. They have four children-Charles, Eva (now Mrs. JACKSON), Charles and Ernest. pg. 717 Clay Twp

WILLIAM N. WARNER

William N. Warner was born in Livingston county, New York, April 29, 1821, and is a son of John and Arabella (Tinker) Warner. His father was born in Canaan, New York, and was in Buffalo, New York, in 1812, where he was drafted to serve in the war of that year and on that account lost his property. He was a tanner and furrier by trade and opened a tannery at Lima, New York, where he died in 1882, aged eighty-seven years. He had a family of five children, Lavina, Harriett, Stephen, William and Tyler.

William N. Warner was married October 7, 1841, to Miss Amanda Warner, daughter of Frederick and Deborah (Evass) Warner, of Lima, New York. Frederick Warner was a farmer, who came to Michigan and remained two years, and then returned to his home in New York. He had a family of nine children, Matthew, Elizabeth, Amanda, Frederick, Henry, James, Mary J., Huldah and Belona. William N. Warner and wife have one child, Alice E., who married Frank J. Groat, a merchant at Lansing, Michigan. They have a family of three children, Harry, Mattie and Alice. Mr. Warner has sixty acres of land, all under cultivation. He has cleared up over a hundred acres of land and has done a great deal of teaming, having hauled flour to the canal at Pittsford, Michigan. He follows a system of mixed farming, raising cattle, sheep and hogs. He is a Republican in his political affiliations and a member of the Methodist Protestant church, being an active worker in the religious field. He came to St. Clair county in 1870, having formerly been a resident of Lapeer county, Michigan, where he lived five years, coming from New York at the close of the war. He is spending his remaining days in a very pleasant home near Smith, in Berlin township, as a retired farmer.
