Joshua L.

Peter Wood, farmer, Section 21, Township 4, Range 16, 80 acres, P. O. St. Clair, is a native of England, and was born in the city of Liverpool April 29, 1819. After reaching manhood, he engaged in business for some years. He emigrated to the United States in 1848, and came to this county in August of the same year, to Marine City. After being here a few months, he went to Cleveland, Ohio, and remained eight months, then returned to this county and bought a farm in the town of Cottrellville; lived there six years then bought the land where he now lives, made his farm and since then has been successfully engaged in farming. During the war, he enlisted as private in Battery H, First Michigan Light Artillery; was promoted to Quartermaster Sergeant, and held that position when mustered out. Mr. Wood has been actively identified with the interest of the town, has held the office of Supervisor, Highway Commissioner, Drain Commissioner, school offices, and is serving his fourth term as Town Clerk. He was elected Justice of the Peace in 1859, and since then, for the past twenty-four years, has held that office. He was married, May 1, 1838, to Miss Ann Hopes a native of Chester, England. They have six children Ellen, now Mrs. Robertson; Elizabeth, now Mrs. Hawkins; Henry, living at Richmond; Thomas; Emma and Joshua L., at home.

In the 1850 census there was a James Wood, 54, a farmer born in England, in the Peter Wood household.
