David Moore Is Dead – Being entirely unacquainted with David Moore we can but quote the following ably written paragraphs from the Republican as they express the general public feeling regarding this manly man: "The death of David Moore, which occurred in Port Huron Monday evening, came very close home to us here in St. Clair. This was not only because Mr. Moore had brothers here but because the large-hearted, good fellow could count as his friend every citizen who knew him well. The death of Mr. Moore was caused from treacherous after effects of the grip, his stomach being affected. Mr. Moore was forty years old having been born at Goodrich, Ont., and was a brother of A. E. Moore and Thomas Moore of this city. Of him it has been said that he was always aggressive, progressive, generous and true to his friends."

The following attended on or more sessions of the C. E. convention at Port Huron this week: Misses Kirker, McKenzie, Lindsay, Coppernoll, Cash, Hattie Moore, Bella Black, Ivah Baird, Martha and Edna Meno, Abbie Crampton, Blanche Brown, Grace Beyschlag, Jennie Grice, and Stewart; and Mesdames Schoales, Brown, G. R. Wildern, Jas. Lightbody, Emma Thomson, John Hart; Mr. and Mrs. Collins, Marshall McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Beyschlag, Reuben Moore.

Fred Gallinau the ferryman made the trip across the ice Saturday morning with a lady and gentleman as passengers. They broke through several times before reaching the path made by the Welcome when she came across last Tuesday. It was the most perilous voyage of the winter.

The Modern Woodmen will give an Easter ball on Monday evening Apr. 8, at the city hall. Committees are as follows: on arrangements, L. Bauman, A. Hayden, Wm. Leiderbach and Jas. Preston; floor committee, F. Westrick, John Kelly, A. Hayden, W. Leiderbach; music director A. Hayden.

Early Sunday morning the ice began to move out and by night the river was entirely clear. The ferry, Welcome, is making her schedule trips and the steamer Mary had been down from Port Huron. The steamer Maude will be the first to leave Pine river. She will take a load of brick to Port Huron next Wednesday. She is now receiving a dose of paint.

Henry Holbert, one of our St. Clair boys, who has been in Old Mexico for the past three years is home for a short visit of a month or so. He is interested in mining property in Mexico and for the past few weeks has

St. Clair Historical Museum 308 South Fourth Street St. Clair, MI 48079 been examining the mining machinery etc. of the west. Mr. Holbert is a graduate of the mining school at Houghten, Mich., and is a very competent engineer of mines.

Very Sad Drowning – Was That Of Thomas L. Kemp – The Verdict of the Coroner's Jury "Death by Accidental Drowning" is Accepted as the Correct Solution –

Brief mention was made in last week's Press of the strange disappearance of Thos. L. Kemp, and a week hence it becomes our painful duty to explain more fully what this disappearance really meant. It was on Thursday afternoon the 7th inst that Mr. Kemp left his home on Clinton avenue, telling his wife he was going out to the farm. The fact that he had been in poor health for so long a time made his good wife a little nervous over his contemplated trip and she suggested that perhaps she had better accompany him. To this he refused to listen, so he set out alone. Mrs. Kemp felt so uneasy over the matter that about twenty minutes later she set out in the same direction he had taken. She went to the farm but could find nothing of Mr. Kemp. She made inquiries but no trace of him could she find. About 4 o'clock she returned home and gave the alarm. Friends of the family started out to search the highways and as the news spread about town others joined the search which continued far into the night. Nothing, however, could be found of the missing man. The next morning the search was renewed. The whole country for miles around was thoroughly gone over and the several searching parties were forced to the conclusion that his body must be in Pine river. The bottom was dragged for several hours when at last their efforts were rewarded, for at a place between the Town Line bridge and the State Road bridge, in the deepest spot in the stream near there, they found the body. Investigation was begun at once to determine how he came to get into the river. It was found that a barbed wire fence had impeded his journey along this route and rather than take the chance of climbing over it he went for a small opening near the river. While going down the embankment, he must have missed his footing and being unable to stop himself, rolled into the river. No other solution seems probable. When the body was recovered even his hat was on his head and in his pockets were valuable papers, which goes to show that the act was not permeditated (sic) as was at first supposed. The circumstances warranted an inquest and Justice Stowell impaneled a coroner's jury consisting of Messrs. John McAllister, John Thompson, Wm. Ford, George Doner, Jas. VanWormer and Sidney Boden. The testimony showed that the course Mr. Kemp usually took in going to his farm was by the bend of Pine river where the body was found, that the conditions of the road made that route the best at that time, that there were tracks along the bank made by rubbers such as he wore, leading straight on and not towards the river, that he would naturally take this course to avoid swales and a barbed wire fence, that the grass was covered with slime and slippery and that if a man in his enfeebled condition once lost his foothold he would almost of a certainty roll down the bank and into the river. Also that he had on his person valuable papers and money which it was believed he would have left at home had he meditated self destruction. After hearing the testimony the jury returned a verdict of "death by accidental drowning."

Deceased was 60 years of age, having been born January 23, 1844. He was of English parentage, but came to this county in 1852. On July 31, 1862, he enlisted in Co. E. 22nd Mich. Inf. He was wounded and taken prisoner at Chickamauga. For the next nine months he divided his time between Richmond and Andersonville prisons. He served until the close of the war and was discharged June 25, 1865. Upon returning home, he experienced considerable hardship in making his way, working in lumber camps, and doing odd jobs until finally he settled down with his father as a farmer. On March 31st, 1869, he was united in marriage to Helen J. Crampton. Four children came to bless this union, three of whom survive, viz Mattie, now Mrs. E. Munger, of Flat Rock, Mich., Dr. John N. Kemp of Saginaw, and Thomas Kemp of Duluth. For a number of years deceased had been commander of Miles Post No. 113, G.A.R. and was highly esteemed and beloved by his comrades. He was a prominent member of Evergreen Lodge, No. 9, F. & A.M. and carried at $1,000 insurance policy in a branch of that order. He also carried $1,000 in the Michigan Mutual Life Insurance CO. At the time of his death he was drawing a pension of $12 per month. Deceased was an active member of the M. E. church, and had for several years been a member of the board of trustees.

Mr. Kemp was essentially a home man. He loved his home better than any other earthly thing. He was a kind, loving father and an affectionate husband. Until the last few years he was a resident of St. Clair town, where he filled numerous township offices, such as clerk, school inspector and justice of the peace. His health having become poorly he sold his farm and came to Saint Clair to reside. Deceased leaves besides his wife and three children, three brothers and one sister, viz: John Kemp, of Portland, Ore., Mrs. N. P. Stewart, of Saginaw, Fred. Kemp of Des Moines, Iowa, and Wm. R. Kemp of this city. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the M. E. church and was largely attended. He was buried with Masonic honors under the auspices of Evergreen lodge, No. 9. The service was participated in by Miles Post, No. 113, G.A.R. and a number from Marine City. The interment was in the old family lot in this city cemetery. Card of Thanks – Words cannot express the thankfulness we feel toward all for their kindness to us in our recent affliction. Mrs. Thos. L. Kemp, John N. Kemp, Thos. L. Kemp, Jr., Mrs. E. C. Munger. Dr. John N. Kemp and wife returned to their home in Saginaw Monday night.

Mrs. N. P. Stewart, of Saginaw, was in attendance at the funeral of her brother, Thos. L. Kemp, held last Monday.

Last Sad Rite – The Press last week contained an obituary notice of Mrs. Wm. Grace, whose death occurred in Denver, Monday, the 4th inst. The remains reached St. Clair Saturday morning accompanied by her two children, Arthur Grace and Clara Grace. The funeral, conducted by Rev. R. Duff, was held from the home of the daughter, Mrs. Geo. J. Ward, that afternoon and was largely attended. James N. Grace of Roslyn, N.Y. was in attendance at his mother's funeral held in this city Saturday.

Honorable Mark Hopkins and wife returned yesterday from California where they have spent the past winter.

Sherwood Hopkins of San Francisco made a brief visit in St. Clair last week. He went from here to the Atlantic coast. Mr. Hopkins' health has been impaired the past few months and his physician ordered a complete change of climate. Mrs. Hopkins will also come east.

Otis Rankin expects to build a new residence on the Rankin farm in East China.

The outgoing mayor and the incoming mayor wasted no words in unnecessary parley. They didn't even give each other a pleasant smile.

Card of Thanks – Henry Vossen and family desire to express their sincere gratitude to their relatives and friends for the many acts of kindness bestowed upon them during their recent affliction.

Very Pretty Season of Year – June is the Month of Roses – This is Also the Season of Year When the Young Man's (and Young Woman's, Too) Heart Turns Lightly to Love

Wilton-Hayner – A very pretty wedding took place at eight p.m. on Saturday last at the residence on the corner of Fourth and Orchard streets, when Miss Helen Wilton was united in matrimony to Mr. Paul Hayner. The brief but impressive marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. L. Gardiner, in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties. Miss Edna Moore of St. Clair acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Leslie Hayner, a brother of the groom, as best man. The bride, who is a popular young lady of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, but formerly of St. Clair, looked charming in a pink and cream wedding gown, while the bridesmaid wore a beautiful blue silk. After the marriage ceremony the company sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper. A large number of presents from relatives and friends testified to the popularity of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Hayner have taken up their residence in the house, in which they were married, corner 4th and Orchard streets. Mr. Hayner will continue to work for the Diamond Crystal, where for a number of years, he has held a good position.

Marsh-Ash – At 7:30 o'clock Wednesday, evening June 1st, at the home of the bride's mother in Bay City, occurred the marriage of Mary Ethel Marsh and Dr. Chas. W. Ash of this city. The bridesmaid was Miss Bessie Marsh, a sister of the bride, and the best man was George W. Trumble of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Herrick of that city. The bride comes from a prominent family in Bay City and is herself a popular young lady. The groom is a rising young physician of this city who has already taken a prominent place in the medical fraternity here. They were the recipients of handsome and costly wedding presents in testimony of the high esteem in which they are held by numerous friends. After a few days' wedding trip they will take up their residence in this city in the house known as the Deyoe residence on Front St. 1st door north of Dr. Burtless' residence, where they will be at home after August 1st.

The Oakland – Miss MacEwan has been at the Oakland the past few days making arrangements for the opening of the hotel on the 18th inst. It is understood that the Oakland will hereafter be run in conjunction with a popular southern resort. The management look forward to a very successful season this year.

Columbia Iron Works – A number of the larger creditors of the Columbia Iron works have made overtures to the smaller creditors to purchase their claims. If this can be done it is probable that a new company may be formed and the works started up by fall. No order for the sale of stock has been made by the courts.

Death of Capt. John Jenkins – The death of Capt. John Jenkins, of Marine City, occurred at the Flint sanitarium Tuesday night. He was a well-known marine man and enjoyed a wide circle of friends who will be sorry to learn of his untimely end. The funeral will be held from his late home on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock under the auspices of the F. & A.M. and Elks.

Invitations have been issued for the second annual reunion and banquet of the Saint Clair High School Alumni Association to be held at Somerville Springs on Friday, June 24. Reunion from 2:30 to 6:30 and banquet at 6:30 o'clock. The officers of the Alumni are: President, Henry Whiting; vice-pres., Miss Laura Moore; secretary, T. Oliver Huckle; treasurer, Arther Maugh. The executive committee is as follows: Henry Whiting, Reuben R. Moore, Mrs. B. F. Crampton, T. Oliver Huckle, Miss Belle Palmer, Miss Laura Moore, Francis M. Bacon. The reception committee consists of Russ S. Jenks, Saint Clair; Mrs. Dora Baird, Marine City; Francis M. Bacon, Saint Clair; Mrs. H. M. Harrington, Ann Arbor; Mrs. Peter Cleary, Ypsilanti; Mrs. H. H. Hart, Saint Clair.

Because his services are so often required in Marine City, George Joachim decided to resign his services as leader of the Saint Clair band. M. J. Keenan is his successor.

There's a fine ship in the Moore Grocery Co.'s window, which has been christened "No. 50." She is manned by Happy Hooligan, Foxy Grandpa and other characters, and all are members of the local harbor.

Town Line and China Correspondence -- This community sustained a severe loss in the death of Henry Bowers, who was killed by lightning on the 26th inst.

Girls, Here's Your Chance – Gentleman age 28, who can give best of reference as to his character, has just started in business for himself in Detroit, would like to correspond with a lady from the age of 18 to 25 years, in view to matrimony. Address for full particulars. W. J. Mason, General Delivery, Detroit, Mich.

Only a Few Boats Are Out – The bitterest part of the fight between the Lake Carriers' association and the Masters & Pilots has taken place within the past week, and during that time the owners have succeed (sic) in getting out an average of two boats a day....

Local Harbor Feeling Good – Local Harbor, No. 50, Masters & Pilots, presents a solid front not one man having gigged over or even shown any inclination to do so. They are confident of winning this great fight and they say the situation looks brighter day by day.

In Unity There Is Strength – Capt. And Mrs. Jos. Lowes and Miss Florence Langell returned to their home in this city last Friday after a residence in Buffalo since the close of navigation last fall. Capt. Lowes was keeping ship on the steamer Mack. Just before their departure Capt. Lowes was offered by the manager of the Mack $2,250 to take that steamer out this year with a guarantee of ten years employment. The offer was refused because the manager of the line sought to deal with the captain as an individual and did not wish to recognize the association of Masters and Pilots. This is but another instance of the fidelity to their association which is being shown among the masters and pilots.

Memorial Day Exercises – Last Monday dawned with a dismal rain, which continued to come down until about noon when the rain clouds disappeared and the remainder of the day was fair but cold. The inclemency of the weather interfered with the outdoor exercises but did not deter the G.A.R. post from marking the graves of the soldier dead nor the ladies from decorating them. There was an abundance of flowers left at the city hall for this occasion, in fact the children and others contributed more flowers this year than for several years past and the ladies wish to express their appreciation of the same. At 2:30 o'clock the procession formed and headed by the Marshall of the Day and city band took up their line of march, ending at the city hall where the exercises were held. The city hall was decorated with wreaths, flags and bunting in a very artistic style, by the Otsiketa Chapter, D.A.R. Each old soldier was presented with a button hole bouquet together with the mayor and most of those taking part in the exercises. Mayor Langell had charge of the program and presided over the exercises. The first number on the program was a duet by Mrs. F. J. Scheuricker and Mrs. Jas. Lightbody and was followed with a prayer by Rev. Rolph Duff. The third number was music by the band, "Star Spangled Banner," then came the reports on decorating the graves by Miss Zetta Bacon, regent D.A.R., and John Fink. One of the special features of the program was the monument to the Unknown Dead. Miss Ivah Baird enacted the part of "Godess of Liberty..." (rest of article missing.)

Miss Nettie Ward has resigned her position in the telephone office and Miss Gertrude Mayhew has taken her place.

Oliver Laffrey has this week leased the Oakland boat house and will again be found in charge this season.

He soon recovered from the effects of the blow sufficiently to make his way to Dr. Thompson's office, by whom the wound was dressed. In Belle River – Frank Fyke, an Adair Man, Drowned on Monday – Body Was Found By Boys – Went Fishing, and Presumably was Victim of Epileptic Attack –

Frank Fyke, a farmer two and a half miles from Adair, on the Hart Road, was drowned in Belle River late Monday afternoon, near his home. Fyke left home early in the afternoon to go fishing. After school a lad by the name of Peter Yeip was hunting muskrats along the river bank and saw a body floating near the shore. The lad ran for assistance and when some men drew the corpse from the water his identity was made known. Fyke lived at home with his parents, being unmarried. He was twenty-six years old and had epilepsy all his life, and this, it is thought probable, was the cause of his falling in the river. Coroner Falk, of Port Huron, was called and decided that death was accidental.

Besides the children, a sister, Mrs. Mary Brown, of this city, and two brothers, Edgarton, of Wallaceburg, and Minion Newkirk, of Chatham, survive. The funeral was held from the Baptist church Monday afternoon, Elder Shippy, of the Latter Day Saints, of Port Huron, officiating.

The marriage of Miss Helen C. Solis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin T. Solis, of this city, to Mr. Charles Bamford, of Saginaw, took place last Saturday at the home of the bride's sister, Dr. Jeanne Solis at Ann Arbor. The ceremony was performed by Dr. C. S. A Most Lamentable Occurrence. The Sympathy of Our People Out to The Stricken Family of The Late Walter Scott. – Our people were greatly shocked Saturday night at learning that Walter Scott had attempted suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. It was known that his wife has been ailing for a considerable time, he has been up with her and working days. He has worked at the Diamond Crystal salt block for the past thirteen years and during that time scarcely ever lost a day. He only quit work Friday. This excessive work and loss of rest are believed to have completely unnerved him and led to his rash act. On seeing what had been done his wife ran out and called the neighbors. These went to her assistance. Drs. Burtless and McCall of this city and Dr. Wilson of Port Huron were summoned and what could be was done, but in vain. He lingered until the next morning when death came to his relief.

Mr. Scott was born April 3, 1871 at White Rock, Mich., and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Scott who afterwards became residents of this city. Narrowly Escapes Drowning – Kenneth Ayers, age 9 of Chicago, who is visiting with the family of Geo. F. Elz, had a narrow escape from drowning Tuesday. He and George Elz jr. had gone to the dock at the foot of Trumbull street to catch minnows when he slipped and went headlong in the river. Young Elz reached him his net which he grabbed, but Elz was unable to pull him out. Fortunately Capt. A. R. Sharrow was in the customs office waiting for his clearance papers and witnessing the accident, ran to the dock and pulled the boy out. The lesson was a good one and neither boy has wished to go near the river since.

Real Estate Change – Saturday last David P. Ingles made the purchase of the building now occupied by his store, the adjoining store, now vacant and the old bank building occupied by I. Mayhew, undertaker and Thos. Sawher, attorney. This property has been owned by the Mark Hopkins estate for a number of years and previous to that was owned by the Sheldon estate. The frame building was formerly used for a hotel and was then known as the Michigan Exchange.

Hart & Scott the past week purchased of Mrs. Ingles her dwelling just west of the Hanaford house on Ninth street.

Wm. Burkart and family moved the past week from the M. Hill Brown house to the Wm. Greening property on Fourth street, which property they purchased early last speing.

Jacob Vossen who purchased the ten acre tract of land on Tenth street owned by Mr. Kelly of Detroit, a few weeks ago, has recently discovered that he secured a better bargain than he anticipated. On the back four acres there is a quantity of gravel, probably 1200 to 2000 loads (and as) this is worth practically a dollar (a) load it is not hard to figure out the accuracy of Mr. Vossen's statement that he made a lucky purchase.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Ballinger are busy these days entertaining a young daughter.

Bright Young Men Meet Watery Graves – Pine River's Toll Friday Was Lives of Bruce and Neil Mead, The Saddest Occurrence In Recent Years – One of the saddest accidents in the history of this city came Friday afternoon in the drowning of Bruce and Neil Mead. Both were born in St. Clair, Bruce in October 1896 and Neil in February 1899, making their ages 18 and 15 respectively. They were the only sons in the family of Mr. and Mrs. George Mead of south Seventh street, their death leaving but one of three children and that one Eleanor, aged 12 years. Both boys were pupils in our high school and universally liked. Their classmates and associates have only kind words to speak of them. Both were bright and Bruce would have graduated next year while Neil would have been in the Sophomore class.

Friday afternoon the boys in company with Roy son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cleland went to Pine River to go in swimming or rather wading as neither of the three could swim. The place selected was an old Indian trail with deep holes at the sides. Neil accidentally stepped into one of these holes and Bruce went in after him; Roy went to their assistance but barely succeeded in getting out himself. After the alarm was given by the Cleland boy a party soon gathered and in time the bodies were recovered. Efforts were made to resuscitate them, but too late as life was extinct. Justice Frank Hayward, acting as coroner, was there and impannelled a jury. The remains were taken to Mayhew's undertaking rooms where the jury assembled and, after hearing Roy Cleland's sworn statement as above given as to how the drowning occurred, agreed that it was purely accidental and that no further inquest was necessary.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon from St. Peter's Lutheran church, and was conducted by Rev. Wilson, and an assistant of Detroit. There was an immense concourse of people, many of whom could not get in. It seemed as if nearly all of St. Clair was there and that our people generally had turned out to manifest their sympathy with the stricken family in the terrible affliction which has thus fallen upon their home.

Schoolmates of the departed were out in large numbers to pay their last respects to their beloved comrades. Floral tributes were beautiful an in great abundance. Rev. Wilson's sermon is spoken of as a lasting tribute (paper torn)

The boys were exceptionally well liked by their schoolmates and young people generally and by a host of older persons who had known them. Their teachers speak of them in the highest terms and emphasize the fact that in all their experience they have yet to meet two more lovable, gentlemanly boys than Bruce and Neil. They were always together, attended school together and finally went to the great beyond together. It is safe to safe to say that of the large number of people within the hearing of Rev. Wilson's voice, not one left the church dry-eyed. The sadness of the occasion impressed everybody alike. That two such fine young men should thus meet such an untimely end was uppermost in everybody's mind. The sympathy for the bereaved parents and sister was manifested on every side, but at such a time nothing that human hands or hearts could do or say could lessen to any great extent the grief of that stricken family. Time alone must pass to temper the force of the sad blow but never can it be effaced. The memory of those loved ones and dear will ever remain uppermost in their minds, but hey will find much consolation in the fact that they have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

Sarnia Girls Are Drowned At Tashmoo Park – The bodies of Nellie Beaumont and Jessie Lawton, the two Sarnia girls who were drowned at Tashmoo park last Friday afternoon have been recovered. The two girls left Sarnia that morning with the Baptist Sunday school picnic. Arriving at the Island they went in bathing. In some manner they got beyond their depth and sank from sight with hundreds of people looking on. According to one eye witness the girls came to the surface three times before finally disappearing. Jessie Lawson who was about eighteen years old was employed at the Sarnia hospital, and came to Canada but a short time ago from Scotland. Nellie Beaumont was the daughter of George Beaumont of 191 Cobden street and was about 17 years of age.

Port Huron Boy Drowned – Howard Beeler, 20 years old, met a watery grave in the rapids of St. Clair river at the foot of Lake Huron, last Friday night and Fred Blackwell, his companion, had a narrow escape from the same fate. Both boys, residents of Port Huron, were out in a rowboat in which a motor had been installed, and at the time of the accident were crossing from Point Edward to the American shore. The steamer John Stanton was down bound light and the supposition is the smaller craft came too close to the passing steamer and the suction swamped the smaller craft.

The remains of Nancy Helen Davie, who died in Clarkstown, Oakland county, on Sunday last, were brought here Tuesday, and funeral was held Wednesday from the Congregational church. Deceased was 73 years of age past. She was a relative of the St. Bernard family of this city.

Herman Knorr – Herman Knorr died at his home in Detroit on Thursday night of last week. The deceased had been seriously ill, but was apparently well on the way to recovery when the oppressively hot weather sapped his vitality and weakened him until death resulted. Mr. Knorr was born April 24, 1838, at Echte in Hanover, Germany, and came to America when 19 years of age. From 1878 to 1882 he was in business in St. Clair and will be well remembered here under the firm name of Knorr & Beauclair.

Mr. Knorr was twice married, his first wife being Miss Caroline Zapf, to whom he was wedded in 1863. Seven children were born to them, all of whom are living and reside in Detroit, with the exception of George who was killed by an automobile two years ago. The children are Emil Knorr, Miss Tillie Knorr, Mrs. Frieda Krause, George and Edward Knorr, Mrs. Martha Fischer and Miss Emma Knorr. The mother of these children died in 1884.

Two years later Mr. Knorr was married to Miss Lena Zink of St. Clair. Two daughters were born to them of whom one died in infancy and the other, Miss Hilda Knorr, is a resident of Detroit.

The deceased was a member of the Lutheran Church. In his boyhood days he pursued studies in the merchant school in Germany. After coming to this country he took a teacher's course at Fort Wayne, Ind. Under the auspices of the Trinity Association he taught in Detroit some years, commencing in 1863. Later he turned his attention to the mercantile business and followed this in Fraser, Mich., Mishawaka, Ind., St. Clair and Detroit. He was a man of culture and highly esteemed by those who knew him. Bodies Recovered – The bodies of Mrs. Edgar Fletcher, 27, and Miss Ola Ellis, 25, both of Toronto, who were drowned Thursday, were recovered from the St. Clair river near Corunna, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Fletcher's three-year-old daughter witnessed the drowning.

No More Doubt About the Shipyard – Plant Sold to New York Syndicate Who Will Manufacture Air Ships and Fast Boats – The story in our last issue anent the sale of the shipyard site to New York parties, has since been confirmed. Mr. Pope, who is at the head of the syndicate, will be here next Sunday, to make arrangements for the necessary repair work to put the plant in shape for the manufacture of airships and fast motorboats. It is said the yard will employ upwards of 200 men at the start. After Great Lakes Engineering Co. gave the eastern concern an option on the plant, they removed two air compressors, one generator, and a switchboard from the plant, which they had no right to do. Monday, James Dawson arrived in St. Clair from the Ecorse shipyard prepared to replace the machinery that had been removed...

The purchasers of the yard here are said to have an option on the C. C. Smith Boat and Engine Company of Algonac....

One of the problems confronting St. Clair is how to house this new force of employes. There isn't a vacant house in town to our knowledge. Something will have to be done. No doubt houses will be built as soon as evidence is forthcoming that the plant is to be permanent.

Brickyard to Resume – Belknap & Phillips' Yard Is Leased And Will Be In Operation By January First Next, -- Frank McElroy and W. G. McCrimmon, of Detroit and D. C. McElroy of this city, have leased the Belknap & Phillips' brickyard, with the option of buying. Mr. McCrimmon is an experienced man in brickmaking, having operated other yards. He has an equipment ready to be shipped here to be installed in the St. Clair yard and information is given out that the plant will be ready for operation by January 1st next. It is the intention to run the plant the year 'round. With the new machinery to be installed, the minimum output of the yard will be 125,000 brick a week....

Wreckers Abandon Work on Str. Price – "Steamer Price is But a Junk Heap," Declares Capt. Cunning After Three Weeks' Work – The efforts of Capt. Alex. Cunning to salvage the steamer Price, lying over-turned on the bottom of Lake Huron was abandoned last Tuesday. Capt. Cunning is reported to have said: "We have quit work. The wreck has been abandoned. There is nothing there but a junk heap and after twenty days of preliminary work we have decided that it is impossible to float the steamer. I do not think it is possible to raise the steamer without such a large expenditure of money as to make the task prohibitive. Even if the steamer should be brought to the surface the wreckers would have nothing but a junk heap for their efforts. There is nothing to the cabin work of the steamer. The aft and forward cabin sections of the steamer are crushed flat. The engine is nothing but a junk heap and the engine bed has been torn away."

Cas. E. Solis – Charles E. Solis died Saturday after a lingering illness from apoplexy and diabetes. Mr. Solis was born Sept. 4, 1848 in Oneida, N. Y. His father Daniel E. Solis came to Michigan soon after and opened a store in Detroit. A little later he came to St. Clair and purchased the City Hotel which stood nearly on the ground now occupied by Drs. Burtless and Carney for offices, where Mrs. Solis and son joined him. He was a very popular landlord and at his death Dec. 26, 1861 people came from all the country around, like Mt. Clemens, Sarnia, Port Huron and Marine City to honor his memory.

Charles E. Solis was educated in the schools of St. Clair, Detroit, the academy at Waterloo, N. Y. and the University of Michigan from the law department of which he graduated in the class of 1879. Soon after his graduation he was admitted to the bar at Port Huron and began the practice of law in St. Clair.

April 13, 1864, Mr. Solis enlisted in Co. F. 15th Mich. Inf., and was with Sherman on his march from Resaca to the sea and up through the Carolinas. He was taken prisoner Aug. 26, 1864 at Atlanta, had a taste of the horrors of Andersonville, but was exchanged a month later by a special arrangement between Sherman and Hood. He as a boy participated in some of the hardest fighting of the war and was at Goldsboro, N. C. when Johnstone surrendered and at 16 took part in the grand review at Washington at the close of the war. He was discharged June 25, 1865 by reason of the close of the war and returned to St. Clair.

In the fall or winter of 1868 he went to Salt Lake City and California and witnessed the driving of the last spike that joined the Central Pacific and the Union Pacific. He was for a while employed by the Mormon church authorities as book-keeper and became quite a favorite with Brigham Young. Later Mr. Solis went to Idaho, Montana, Nebraska, and Missouri. He visited Kansas City, but found it very dull, real estate very cheap and business at a stand still. He was in Omaha when land could be had for entering it. Much of this land at both places has become very valuable. From 1874 to 1876 he was in the Black Hills, Dak. The latter summer he returned to St. Clair and in the fall entered the U. of M. as a law student.

Mr. Solis has been city attorney and justice of the peace. In the latter capacity he always tried to prevent litigation. If persons had trouble and went before him he tried to induce them to settle it and many cases in this way were settled which with other men would have resulted in prolonged litigation and bad blood. Mr. Solis was married Nov. 18, 1868 to Miss Emma White of Port Huron. They were blessed with two children, one of whom, Georgia now Mrs. R. A. Dudley is living and resides at Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Solis died Aug. 19, 1888.

The deceased was a big-hearted man and during his long residence here made a large circle of friends who will regret that they are to see him no more. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the house and was conducted by Rev. F. B. Johnson. Ex-soldiers of the Union army acted as pall-bearers.

The Boy Scouts, under the leadership of Fauster Engelgau, who were in camp near the scene of accident, were quickly on the scene and aided in rescuing the injured, loading them into the autos and taking them to the houses along the road...

In a statement made today to Sheriff Windsor, Howard Gardner, of Port Huron, conductor of the local car, which ran past the Yankee switch, violating orders, placed the entire responsibility for the accident on William Plotzke, of Port Huron, his motorman, who is still in the St. Clair hospital...

Newspaper fragment, probably January 1919, carrying the article of Arthur Vollsteadt's accident also reported by the St. Clair County Press for January 24, of that year.

Stripped of Clothes; Escapes Serious Hurt – Arthur Vollsteadt Has Thrilling Experience With Sprocket at Salt Plant – Caughter by some projection on a large sprocket wheel, while at his work in the plant of the Diamond Crystal Salt Co., Friday, Arthur Vollsteadt, of Cass street, had all his clothing torn from his body, was whirled about the shaft several times, and thrown with violence against the cement floor. Though considerably bruised, and suffering from the shock, Mr. Vollsteadt will probably escape the thrilling experience with no more serious injury than a sprained ankle. With another workman, Mr. Vollsteadt was about to repair a chain, running from this sprocket to another, which had broken. As they approached the large sprocket, he cautioned the other man against the danger of being caught. In another instant he had brushed against the wheel himself and was being thrown about the shaft. The fact that his overalls were old doubtless saved his life. After a revolution or two the clothing gave way. When he fell to the floor Mr. Vollsteadt had been stripped of all covering except his shoes and stockings. Late reports from the Vollsteadt home are that the exception of the injured ankle and numerous body bruises, the patient is rapidly recovering.

Young People Take Cold Plunge Into Pine River – Skating Accident Results in Nothing More Serious than "Ducking" – Miss Eugenia Ebert fell into an airhole, while skating on Pine river, last Thursday afternoon. With his aid, Earl was able to get Miss Ebert onto solid ice. Neither is feeling any ill effects as the result of their experience.

The marriage of Clarence J. Brinker and Miss Sarah Cahours, both of St. Clair, was solemnized at St. Mary's church Wednesday morning, of last week, Rev. Fr. Kromenaker officiating. Mrs. Brinker was born in St. Clair and has lived here all her life. Mr. Brinker's family moved here from Harrisonville about nine years ago. For the past few years he has been the mate on the steamer J. Pierpont Morgan, now in dock in Toledo. Hold-Up Staged in Regular Western Style – Thug Tried to Lasso Henry Brenner, Failing He Drew Gun and Told Victim to 'Stick 'em Up.'

Henry Brenner, shoemaker, was returning home last Friday night about eleven o'clock. Between 9th and 10th streets he noticed someone following him but thought nothing of it at the time. All at once he felt something strike him on the back of the neck; at this he stopped and faced a tall young man. Mr. Brenner asked him what he wanted; the man replied, "your money." Henry didn't attempt to argue the question as an ugly looking gat was pointing in his direction. He attempted to put his hand in his pocket for his money, when the thug objected, saying "none of that, hands up."

Brenner "stuck 'em up," and the man still smiling rifled his victim's pockets. Herny was then commanded to "keep 'em up" for ten minutes while the stick-up man beat it. The Brenner home was not far distant and the aged man hurried there, informing his son of what had happened. The young man was able to trace his father's assailant as far as the high school building and in the yard he found the rope that the thug had dropped in his haste to get away. The rope had evidently been thrown with the intent of lassoing Mr. Brenner. Speaking of the incident the victim says he could easily recognize his assailant. He refused to state the amount of his loss.

St. Clair Loses An Honored Citizen – Death of Franklin Moore Causes Widespread Sorrow In Loss of An Exceptionally Able Man – Franklin Moore's death at 2:30 a.m. Tuesday in Ford hospital, Detroit, cast a pall of sorrow over this community and especially in St. Clair city, his home. His death was not unexpected, since word conveyed from the sick room several days ago gave home(?) folks no encouragement. We who knew him best felt dazed and wondered at the irony of fate. He was recognized as an exceptionally able man in many spheres in life. His success in business, in politics and social activities, marked him as one of the outstanding examples of citizenship in this section of the state.

Franklin Moore was born in St. Clair 49 years ago. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Moore, now deceased. His education was received in the public schools of this city. He had every opportunity to seek a higher education, but left high school instead and went to work. After various lines of industry he finally entered the employ of the Diamond Crystal Salt Co., of which his father was one of the organizers and part owner.

Frank decided to try his hand at mastering the intricacies of the salt manufacturing business and was willing to begin at the bottom of the ladder. He worked (illegible) departments and at the end of five years was rewarded by a promotion to shipping clerk. In due course of time he was made traffic manager, a really important position which he mastered and held a number of years. Following the death of his father, Franklin Moore, Sr., who was secretary-treasurer, this position was filled several years by the late Ben Whipple. Finally, on account of his health, Mr. Whipple resigned and went to the Pacific coast and the position he had held went to Franklin Moore, the subject of this sketch, which position he held at the time of his death.

Politics, His Hobby – Every man is supposed to have a hobby and deceased was no exception to the rule. He loved the game of politics and no doubt inherited this trait from his father. Franklin indulged in politics beginning at home. At the age of 24 he was elected to represent the first ward of his home city on the common council and served three terms or six years in all. In 1911 he was elected mayor. His next political office was on the board of supervisors where he received his first training in parliamentary law. He was elected to the legislature in 1916 and served his district so capably that he was returned three consecutive terms.

Health Undermined – During his second term he was speaker pro tem and a candidate for the office of lieutenant governor of Michigan in 1924 and made an extensive canvass of the state, traveling by automobile. It is believed he over-exerted himself in this campaign, bringing on a gradual breakdown in health

Active For Green – In Fed W. Green's candidacy for the nomination of governor, Mr. Moore was very active and took a prominent part in forming "Green-for-Governor" clubs throughout the various counties of the state. At the time of his death, he was a member of the state prison commission and of the St. Clair county board of supervisors, having been re-elected to the board for his fourth time in April. Mr. Moore was elected eight of the 12 times he was a candidate for public office.

Social Activities – Fraternally Mr. Moore was a Knight of Pythias, an Elk, an Oddfellow, a Mason, a Knight Templar and a member of the Mystic Shrine. He had been master of the Masonic lodge here and grand patron of the Michigan order of the Eastern Star. He was a prominent member of the St. Clair River Country club, was recently elected president of the Rotary club and was an ardent supporter of community enterprises such as the St. Clair Inn and new City hospital.

Bank President – Mr. Moore was president of the State Savings bank of St. Clair. He was identified with other business enterprises and his life, though comparatively brief in the span of years, was so filled with activities that his place in the community will be hard to fill. He had mastered the art of public speaking and his success along this line was so pronounced that his services were very much in demand.

In his early 20's Mr. Moore was united in marriage to Miss Jennie Harkness of this city. This union was blessed with three children. Jane died at an early age and the widow and one daughter, Margaret, and one son, Franklin H., survive. He also leaves three sisters, Miss Laura Moore of St. Clair; Mrs. Margaret Phelps of Detroit and Miss Emily Moore of Berkeley, Calif. The funeral was held yesterday at 1 p.m. from the family home, under the auspices of the Masonic lodge. The remains were laid to rest in Hillside cemetery. All St. Clair business places closed yesterday between 2 and 3 p.m. during the funeral hour.

Two Splendid Young Men Victims of Tragic Accident – This Entire Community Severely Shocked By News of the Death of Ray A. Thomson and Raymond P. Borntrager – All St. Clair was shocked and saddened by the news that came to us Friday night, when we were told of the sudden death which had come to Ray A. Thomson and Raymond P. Borntrager in an automobile accident occurring about 8 o'clock that evening while on their way to a football game in the University of Detroit stadium. In the dimness of the atmosphere, foggy and rainy as the night was, the Ford car driven by Mr. Thomson crashed into a stalled truck without lights on the John R. road, between the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Mile roads, resulting in almost immediately fatal results to both occupants of the Ford car. Since the happening of this tragic event, the people of St. Clair have been compelled to meditate upon this calamity, and to feel the pathos of the moment which has so changed the destiny of those concerned, and left the two families of the deceased in sorrow and mourning, for whom universal sympathy is expressed. The fatal accident takes from our city two of its highly respected and useful citizens, and the city shares in the sense of the general bereavement felt over the tragedy. Next to the keenness of sorrow and bereavement felt by the families and relatives of the deceased, is that felt by their co-workers and comrades of many years on the St. Clair Press, Charles R. Roberts and Ross Jones.

Some fourteen years ago Mr. Thomson purchased the interest of Frank Schrepferman in the St. Clair County Press and became associated with Charles R. Roberts in its ownership and management. Mr. Roberts bears eloquent testimony to his splendid ability and trustworthiness through all these years of their partnership.

The funeral service was held in the Congregational church Monday afternoon, the pastor, Rev. Ralph Claggett, assisted by the Rev. (paper torn)... The Lions Club of St. Clair of which Mr. Thomson was a charter member and who had served on its Board of Directors, was present in a body. In addition to these, he is survived by his father and mother, living in St. Clair; his two sisters, Hilda and Dorothy, now Mrs. Sheldon Cartwright and Mrs. Donald Adamson, of Algonac; and by his brother, Bruce, of St. Clair.

Mr. Borntrager had his schooling in St. Clair, and in his boyhood days was a Boy Scout. Splendid Citizen Departs This Life – Russ. S. Jenks, Banker Here Many Years, Will Long Be Remembered For Many Admirable Traits – Russ S. Jenks, banker and lifelong resident of this city, died last Friday afternoon at his home here after an illness of more than a year. With his passing St. Clair lost one of its best esteemed and most prominent citizens, one whose place in our midst can never quite be filled – whose ready wit and kindly advice will be sorely missed and whose service to his townsmen can never be forgotten. Active in every enterprise for the betterment of St. Clair, he was one of the principle figures in the establishment of our present modern school system, the new high school, the St. Clair River Country club, the Rotary club and the St. Clair Inn. It was in no small way due to his sound judgment and influence that our - or perhaps it would be more fitting to say "his" - bank, the Commercial & Savings, came through the recent trying ordeal as did few others in the country- with its depositors' faith confirmed and their confidence unshaken. A banker of the old school, he was conservative, fair and of unquestioned integrity. Always the servant of his people, he was willing at all times to give his best to all who asked. Greater tribute can we pay to no man and no man more fully deserved whatever honor we may bestow on him Russ S. Jenks was born in St. Clair, June 10, 1867, the son of Bela W. and Sarah Jenks and had lived here all his life. He was just past 66 years of age. He attended the St. Clair public schools as a boy and later graduated from a Detroit business college.

Mr. Jenks began his banking career in June, 1886, as bookkeeper for the First National bank of St. Clair which in October of the same year became the Commercial & Savings bank. He was elected cashier in 1894 and since that time practically had been in charge of the institution. He was elected president in 1918, succeeding his brother, the late Chas. C. Jenks. In 1908 Mr. Jenks served on term as mayor of this city and had been an active member of the board of education for more than 30 years, serving for a time as president. He was secretary to the board at the time of his death. Beside being treasurer of Evergreen lodge, No. 9, F. & A.M., one of the oldest lodges in the state, for the last 30 years, Mr. Jenks was also a Knight Templar. He was an active member of the Rotary club, serving as treasurer for many years. He was elected president of the club in April and would have take office last Tuesday.

He married, in 1890, Miss Grace Kitton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Kitton, who survives with two daughters, Mrs. Robert M. Farr, St.Clair, and Mrs. R. Gerveys Grylls, Detroit; two brothers, W. L. Jenks, Port Huron; George Jenks, Pittsburgh, Pa.; two sisters, Mrs. Mary J. West, Port Huron, and Mrs. Anna B. Jones, Chicago. There are four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 4 p.m. Sunday in the Jenks home, Rev. Herny H. Firth, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, of which Mr. Jenks was a member, officiating.

Escort of Templars – Port Huron commandery, No. 7, Knights Templar, formed an escort to Hillside cemetery, where past masters of Evergreen lodge, No. 9, F. & A. M. had charge of services at the grave. Pallbearers were Arthur E. Maw, Frank E. Douglas, G. Grant Smith and Everette Devroy, members of the Commercial & Savings bank staff, and Grant A. Smith and J. MacNaughton Lightbody.

Mr. Jenks' family descended from the kings and princes of the fourth and fifth royal tribes of Wales, and also from notable American pioneers. Joseph Jenckes I (the name was later changed to Jenks) came to America in 1642, and took out the first patent in America in 1646. Four brothers, Bela W. Jenks, father of Russ S. Jenks, Robert H. Jenks, Jesse Lane Jenks and Benjamin Jenks, eighth in the line of descent from Joseph Jenckes I, came to this district from New York state many years ago and founded the Jenks family in this district.

Fred Moore Named Bank's President – Death of Russ S. Jenks Brings Several Changes in Personnel; A. E. Maw Elevated To Vice Presidency – At a meeting of its board of directors Wednesday, Fred W. Former St. Clair Girl's Death Severe Shock To Friends – In the passing of Harriet Trumble Dye early last Friday morning, the city of Flint lost one of its most efficient teachers. She was born in the city of Topeka, Kansas, Nov. 15, 1889. She was a graduate of the St. Clair high school and the State Normal College at Ypsilanti. She was married at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Witty in Detroit, Aug. 23, 1924, to Harvey Dye of Flint. She was a natural born teacher and had the love of her pupils wherever she went. For the past few years she had been teaching in the Dewey school winning friends among teachers and pupils and was an acknowledged hard, conscientious worker and always won the esteem of her superiors. The beauties of nature appealed to her so strongly. Gorgeous sunsets on the quiet inland lakes were entrancing to her. Some of her work in art is in the possession of her near relatives. Conscious of children's keen observation, she always dressed to please them and was richly rewarded with their simple admiration. On Saturday she and her husband went down town shopping, apparently as well and strong as usual. Sunday she was far from well but thought nothing much of it. Monday she was not able to go to school. Tuesday and Wednesday the doctor's advice was a touch of the "flu." Thursday she was taken to Hurley hospital where she passed away about 5:30 Friday morning. The funeral took place from Dodd and Dumanois' beautiful funeral home in Flint, with the Rev. Dr. Kerns of the First Presbyterian church officiating and choosing as his text the last part of the last verse of the 23rd Psalm. After the wonderful organ prelude, the soloist sang "Lead Kindly Light" and again "The Old Rugged Cross," Hattie's favorite hymns. Interment was in Rose Centre cemetery, considered one of the beautiful spots in that section of the state. Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Trumble, parents of the deceased, were in attendance at the funeral. They, with other St. Clair relatives, have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in this affliction.

At 10:15 p.m. Dec. 17, it was reported to Sheriff Wm. L. Van Antwerp that Mrs. Gottseben, age 59, living on the Bonsteele road, was struck by a hit-and-run driver while walking about four miles out Pine Grove avenue. Mrs. Gottseben died in the Port Huron hospital the next morning and the only clue the sheriff and deputies had as to who the driver of the car might be was a bumper found some little distance from the accident that had evidently dropped off the hit-and-run car. After considerable careful investigation, a car belonging to Truman C. Pond, Pine Grove avenue, was found without a front bumper. When brought in for questioning by the sheriff, Pond admitted that he was the driver of the car. He is in the county jail and has pleaded not guilty of leaving the scene of an accident and will come up for trial next week.
