WARNING — TO PARTY LINE USERS

Michigan State Law (Number 56 of Public Acts of 1952) makes punishable offenses of certain acts in connection with the use of party line telephone service. The law, in part, reads as follows:

"Any person who shall willfully refuse to yield or surrender the use of a party line to another person for the purpose of permitting such other person to report a fire or summon police, medical, or other aid in case of emergency, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

"Any person who shall ask for or request the use of a party line on pretext that an emergency exists, knowing that no emergency in fact exists, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

"Emergency" as used in this section means any situation in which property or human life are in jeopardy and prompt summoning of aid is essential."

DIRECTORY ACCURACY

Every effort is made to compile and print this directory as accurately as possible; however, despite care and attention, errors sometimes occur. Please check your listings when you receive a new directory. If your listing is incorrect, notify the Business Office at once so that we may change our records and do whatever we can to protect your service in the meantime.

The Company assumes no liability for damages arising from errors or omissions in free listings. Its liability, in the case of paid listings, does not exceed the charge for such listings during the life of this directory.

Classified Telephone Directory

The Classified Telephone Directory is published for the benefit and convenience of our subscribers. Each business subscriber is given one listing under one general classification. Additional listings under other classifications may be obtained for a nominal charge by making written application, therefore, to the Company in advance. For accounting reasons only, such additional listings are identified in this section by a "Y" shown at the left of the extra listing telephone number.

The telephone company and the publishers of this directory assume no liability, what-so-ever damages arising from errors or omissions in making up or printing this book. The utmost care is used, however, in listing all subscribers correctly.

Subscribers (both residence and business) are listed alphabetically on the preceding pages. The following pages (yellow) list only those who pay a business rate.

HOW TO USE THE DIAL TELEPHONE

First of all, obtain the correct number from the latest directory which has been distributed by the telephone company. Telephone numbers are constantly being changed, and, in fact, an old, familiar number which you may have been calling for years might no longer exist.

Next, remove the receiver with care. "Jiggling" the hook could conceivably give you a wrong number.

Then listen for the Dial Tone!

No other instruction is more important than this, because, unless you hear the steady, humming sound in your receiver before you begin to dial the number, your telephone is not connected with the central office equipment, and you will be unable to contact anyone. The dial tone is the "Number Please" of dial equipment.

If you do not hear the dial tone, replace your receiver for several seconds. Then listen again for the tone.

After you hear the dial tone, you may begin the dialing operations immediately without replacing the receiver.

How to Dial a Number.

Suppose, for example, you wish to call the number 673-9000. First, place your finger in the dial opening which is directly above the number 6. Turn the dial clockwise with your finger until you touch the finger stop. Then remove your finger and allow the dial to return to its normal position. Follow the same procedure for the number 7 then for the 3 and the rest of the digits in the number.

When you have finished dialing the complete number, you should hear either the ringing signal or the busy signal within a few seconds. The ringing signal is a low, intermittent, purring sound, whereas the busy signal is a higher-pitched "buzz-buzz-buzz."

If you hear neither the ringing signal or the busy signal, it's quite possible that you have made a mistake in dialing. Replace your receiver, listen again for the dial tone, and repeat the dialing procedure.

If you make a mistake while dialing, replace your receiver immediately and wait for the equipment to "erase" your mistake before listening for the dial tone again. Your error can not be corrected unless you replace your receiver for a few seconds.

Party line subscribers and extension users: When you call from a party line or any line having an extension telephone, listen first, before dialing, to see if the line is in use. If you do not hear a conversation OR the dial tone, ask if the line is being used. If you hear dialing "clicks" when you lift your receiver, they indicate that you have interfered with someone else's dialing. It is common courtesy to remain on the line until the other party has finished dialing in order to inform him that it will be necessary for him to redial his number. Then hang up and permit him to dial again.

Calls To A Party On Your Line

If you dial a number and repeatedly receive a busy signal it is possible that the party you are calling is on your line.

Calls to another party on your line may be made by dialing a special code. A Card has been furnished for your directory, listing the parties on your line and the special code you must dial to get them. You may also secure a code number by dialing information and asking for the code number.

When you know the special code for reaching another party on your line dial it in the usual manner then hang up your receiver. Your bell will then ring at intervals; when ringing stops, it is an indication that the called party has answered. Remove the receiver and start conversation. If the ringing does not stop within one minute it is probable the called party is not available. To stop the ringing, remove the receiver and then replace it.

If you receive a call from someone on your line you will hear a clicking, this tells you to wait until the person calling you answers.

When you have finished your conversation, be sure to replace your receiver carefully. If your receiver remains off the hook, your line is automatically "busy" to anyone who tries to call you.

If you are making a series of calls, you must "hang up" between each call. Otherwise, you will not hear the dial tone which informs you that the equipment is ready to accept another call.

Please limit the length of your calls. Excessive "holding time" helps to tie-up and jam the dial equipment, which prevents the use of the service by your neighbor. Particularly if you are on a party line, we ask you to limit your local calls, as often as possible, to five minutes or less.
