OOPS! PLEASE ADJUST YOUR PAGINATION!

In the October (Volume 3, Number 2) issue of GENERATIONS, the pages were numbered 7 through 25. Also included with this issue were a number of pages of handout materials that were not available for Barbara Madison's lectures at the CCGS fall seminar in September. Strictly speaking, these pages should also be numbered, which would expand the pages in that volume to 41. This issue, therefore, begins with page 42.

HEEEEEEEELP!!!

CCGS needs immediate replacements for two officers. Brenda Boyce, our current Program Chairperson, must resign by the end of February due to the press of job responsibilities. We still are in need of a Publicity Chairperson. Both of these positions are crucial. Please contact President Tom Struble if you are willing to take over either of these offices.

NEWSLETTERS IN OUR FILES

Because we at CCGS either receive from or exchange newsletters with other societies, our archives at the Elsie Munro Local History Room at the Albion Public Library hold the following materials to be used as resources. Not all issues of newsletters are available within a time period, some are single copies and some listings are for nothing more than a society's membership or publication list. It is hoped that this material will at least give you an idea of what a particular society is doing in its area and what publications they may have produced.

FEBRUARY MEETING

The CCGS February meeting will take place Tuesday, February 26 at Willard Library. Marlene Steele is in charge of the program, entitled DAR and Other Resources for Researching Your Revolutionary War Ancestors. The program will be held in the second floor meeting room across the hall from the children's room. Please plan to arrive about 6:45, as the program will begin promptly at 7:00.

GROSVENOR FAMILY GENEALOGY
DONATED

Gene D. LaMont, whose wife, Margaret Gage LaMont is a descendant of the GROSVENOR family, has donated an excerpt from his compiled genealogy THE LAMONT AND GAGE FAMILIES; AN ACCOUNT OF THE ANCESTRY OF MARY AND DONALD LAMONT, CHILDREN OF GENE AND MARGARET (GAGE) LAMONT. Margaret Gage LaMont is a great-great granddaughter of Ebenezer Oliver and Mary Ann (LIVERMORE) GROSVENOR who are both buried in Albion's Riverside Cemetery. Two of their daughters married into the PEABODY family in Albion. Their eldest son, Ira Rufus GROSVENOR, fathered five children by (1) Harriet WOOD and (2) Sarah WOOD. While Ira Rufus GROSVENOR's younger brother, another Ebenezer Oliver GROSVENOR, settled in Jonesville and formed the Grosvenor Bank, Ira became a lawyer in Monroe. Much interesting and heretofore little known material about the early origins of the GROSVENOR family is included in this well documented genealogy. A copy of this material will be placed in the GROSVENOR family file at the Elsie Munro Local History Room at the Albion Public Library. The original will go into the CCGS archives. The society owes Mr. LaMont a sincere vote of thanks for his generous donation.

HEEELP...ROUND TWO

Due to the fact that I am managing the dual roles of being both the GENERATIONS Newsletter editor and CCGS Corresponding Secretary, the backlog of queries has gotten a bit unmanageable at times.

Just before Christmas, I sent out 26 typed pages of correspondence in two days. My dual job load is going to be manageable only if members are willing to investigate and answer some of the queries received by CCGS. I love to do these; they're good practice, but enough is enough! Many thanks to Meda Francisco and Brenda Boyce, who have both helped me out. If you are willing to pitch in, please let me know. We get all kinds of genealogical questions; it might be helpful if you let me know what specific area of the county you are willing to handle. Thanks for your support in this matter. ---Linda Wilbur

QUERY

Whatever happened to Mary VERNEY? When the family of Rev. James (age 41) and Elizabeth (age 45) (BUCKTHOUGHT) VERNEY was enumerated in the 1870 Federal Census for Fredonia, their children were: William (age 14); Mary (age 12); Harry (age 10); Alfred (age 8); Priscilla (age 6); and Anna (age 4). All of these children have been accounted for except Mary, who appears to have died young sometime after the 1870 census was taken and before the family moved to Leroy in 1873. Rev. VERNEY was a Congregational minister who pastored churches both in Fredonia and in West Leroy, where he and his wife are buried. Does anyone know exactly what happened to Mary and where she might be buried? Please contact Alfred B. Webber, M.D., 1051 Lincoln Ave., Lodi, CA 95240.
